

As a paid subscriber to XM Radio I expect XM to continue to improve programming and service to its customers. The FCC should reject NAB's petition 04-160 and let XM supply the type of service desired by its customers.